LANCASTER -- Capt. Darron G. "Dar" Spalty, 61, died Oct. 11, 2008, peacefully at his home, after a brief but courageous battle with lung cancer, with his family at his side.

He was born in Rochester, N.Y., on Nov. 6, 1946, to Jean (Howland) Martin and Irving G. Spalty.

He was a member of the Rochester Chapter of the Order of DeMolay.

Mr. Spalty joined the U.S. Army and attended flight school, served in Vietnam as a helicopter pilot in the Stage Coach 155th Assault Helicopter Company.

After leaving the service, he worked commercially as a helicopter captain all over the world, eventually traveling to every continent except Antarctica. His wit, charm, generosity and love of life created lifelong friendships with people all over the globe.

Mr. Spalty eventually settled in Lancaster, to be near his sister, Maren and her husband Gary Halladay of North Stratford.

IN HIS LIFE: As an animal lover, he decided to invest in alpacas for his future retirement. In a short time, he and Janice were raising nationally recognized champions at new Millennium Alpaca Farm.

He always appreciated the support and interest of the town of Lancaster and its residents as the alpaca farm grew.

He continued to work as a pilot and proudly reached his career goal of 20,000 flying hours, pilot error-free, in June of 2006. His many interests ranged from woodworking to anything mechanical, including auto restoration.

His first love was spending time with his family and friends.

Family members include his loving wife, Janice (Chabot) Spalty, his mother Jean (Howland) Martin and her husband Raymond of Weeki Wachee, Fla.; his father, Irving G. Spalty of Rochester, N.Y.; his sister Maren Halladay and her husband Gary of North Stratford; his son, Steven Spalty of Steamboat Springs, Colo.; his daughter, Nicole Frederick of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; a stepson, Caleb Thompson and his wife Julie of Lovell, Maine; stepdaughter Hannah Thompson of Jefferson; and five grandchildren.

SERVICES: Calling hours at his home.

Memorial donations may be made to Hospice of Weeks Medical Center, attn. Abby Pollender, 278 Main St., Lancaster 03584.

The Bailey Funeral Home, Lancaster, is handling arrangements.
